Hello Parents,

Next Wednesday, September 26 is Back to School Night! In class, we have started with our “ABC Bootcamp” and are learning about a different letter each day. Next week’s letters are listed in the chart at the bottom. A great activity would be to let them look through old newspapers or magazines to find and cut out that day’s letter, and then glue them all on a colorful piece of paper.

I have not received authorization from administration to use WhatsApp, so our primary means of communication will be ClassDojo. If you have not already, please join our class so that I can send you updates and photos.

Thank you,
Emily Simon
